We will send the program registration code info to this email address.

Check the box next to each term below:

____ You will be provided with a license key to use the Iowa Support Master software for a limited period during which you will have unlimited use of the program and all its features.

____ The time is sequential. If, for example, you order the 48-hour version, you have 48 hours to use the program. If you discover after your use has expired that you must make a change, you will be required to order another limited use license.

____ Alft & Wilson Publishing WILL NOT provide support to self-represented, non-lawyer users. If you determine you need help, contact a family law attorney of your choosing.

____ I certify that I have downloaded, printed and prepared the information gathering form provided on the Alft & Wilson website. That I have used the free calculator and read the Guidelines and that I understand what information I will need to prepare a Form 1.

____ There are no refunds and we make no guarantee that the forms you prepare using Iowa Support Master will be accepted by the court. It is your responsibility to know and understand the guidelines.
